

Beiderbeckes' Management Deposit Policy

Group reservations of six or more

To ensure that all of your party attend on the night Beiderbeckes may advise you, well in advance, that a £10 per Person deposit will be levied.

Beiderbeckes is quite flexible in this matter and if we were given ample notice of any cancellation, (48 hours say) we would consider returning your deposit in its entirety.

This is discretionary, as in all likelihood we have turned potential customers away in the meantime. Your party depending on numbers will have been allocated an appropriate part of the Restaurant. If your party is less than originally stated you would have probably been placed at an alternative table.

We are a small, independent establishment so giving us no notice of cancellations costs us too much revenue and it is because of this any 'no shows' forfeit their £10 deposit.

Nb. Our Front of House staff are not permitted by Management to deviate from this policy.

Should you wish to discuss any of these issues our Manager will respond to e-mails sent to
